

PADAVIGAMPOLA

Truly authentic typical Sri Lankan rural homestay... It will be an experience like no other...

Padavigampola, a name widely known for the pre-historic dolmen believed to be cradle of the earliest known man is the only known example in Sri Lanka (Ceylon) of the structural work by Stone Age man. A place once associated with the sun-worship of the Neolithic man and attended by several kings in Sri Lanka presently opens its door to offer an opportunity for the travelers to get to know their proud life style and esteemed tradition of hospitality.

WHAT WE HAVE TO OFFER...

With its hypnotizing scenic beauty, Padavigampola home stay adds up yet another excitement to the wide range of tourism components currently available in Sri Lanka. Tourism here is a completely fresh and authentic experience for the visitors, since most of its landscape is still untouched and the exotic beauty of it is as yet waiting to be explored.

We warmly welcome you to the friendly traditional community in Padavigampola. We have readily opened up our homes to local and foreign guests so as that they can have a taste of the unique village lifestyle to cherish for a lifetime- the fastest and easiest ways to get to know the true country life in Sri Lanka. The rural private houses are easily accessible and ready to offer the best service possible to satisfy the visitors. These houses have one or more rooms for accommodation and they will ensure the liberty and the privacy of the guests.

WHAT YOU CAN EXPLORE...

You will experience the full spectrum of village life. Participation in the traditional agriculture and farming activities will offer an amazing experience. Home-cooking and traditional handicraft industries will surely be the most memorable components during your stay. A huge variety of painstakingly prepared traditional dishes can not only please your tongue but cure your mind. Not only you can taste the immaculate flavours of traditional, indigenous herbal food and brewery, often the guests would learn how to prepare them with the local expertise.

You can choose to explore your surroundings, spend the time by climbing nearby mountains, cycling in the rural roads, wait at local streams or try bathing, try your hand at riverside fishing or perhaps be busy with watching the sunset from the top of the mountain in the nearby.

In the evenings, you'll enjoy cultural dances, ritualistic performances, all of which you will be encouraged to participate in. The spiritual aspect of the local community is yet another explorable area that awaits visitor's attentive mind and much more.

... And when you return home, take with you the heartily and unobliterate cultural experience, and share it with your friends who may also wish to experience the same. The friendships and the affinities will be the ultimate complements that these villagers as well as the Sri Lankans are looking forward to ...
